APPENDIX II

THE COCHIN VERUMPATTAMDARS (CONDONATION OF FORFEITURE) BILL

Preamble.—Whereas it is expedient to give relief to certain Verumpattamdars from eviction It is hereby enacted as follows.—

1. (1) This Act may be called the Cochin Verumpattamdars (Condonation of Forfeiture) Act of 112 .

(2) It extends to the whole of Cochin and it shall come into force at once.

2. Notwithstanding anything contained in any Law for the time being in force, where in any suits instituted before the 12th day of Meenam 1119 or in any review, appeal or revision against any decree or order passed therein when a Verumpattamdar is sought to be evicted on the grounds specified in clause (c) or clause (d) of section 8 of the Cochin Verumpattamdars Act VIII of 1118, the Courts shall, if the Verumpattamdar deposits within 90 days of the passing of the Act in the Courts in which the suits, review, appeal or revision is pending, or in the case of a decree in the Courts executing or competent to execute the decree, the pattam and puravaka dues and interest thereon legally recoverable or decreed, as the case may be and unless covered by the decree and the arrears of pattam, puravaka dues and interests thereon, which have accrued due subsequent to the date of the plaint up to the date of deposit and the full costs with interest thereon at 6 per cent per annum to the plaintiff or the decree-holder, pass an order condoning the forfeiture and thereupon the Verumpattamdar shall hold the property as if the default had not occurred.

Objects and Reasons

The Act VIII of 1118 and the subsequent amending Acts and Proclamations gave undoubtedly substantial relief to the unprotected Verumpattam tenants of our State. But there are some genuine cases pending in our Courts in which eviction shall be ordered in spite of clause (d) of sub-section (1) of section 8 of Act VIII and the correcting section 3 of Act XV of 1118. It is only equitable and just that such Verumpattamdars without being unnecessarily attacked of their careless conduct may be lastly relieved of their heart-burn and misery arising out of their imminent eviction. Hence the Bill.
